

UCR New Employee Benefits Orientation

What Is It ?

UC Riverside's New Employee Benefits Orientation (NEBO) is essential for employees to attend either in person or via Zoom. If you are a Faculty or Staff member eligible for full benefits and nonpostdoc, please join us to learn about UC's Health & Welfare Benefits and review the additional UC plans.

UCLC Course Description

This course provides new UCR faculty and staff with detailed information and highlights of the UC comprehensive benefits package. The Central HR Benefits Office staff will assist you with benefits questions. The UCR Central HR Benefits Office, the Wellness Team, the Employee and Organizational Development Team, Fidelity Investments, UC Health, Card Services and local Credit Unions will provide valuable information about the programs available.
