

College to Careers

UCR is Now hiring!

What is College to Careers?

- The College to Careers program was created as an outreach to UCR undergraduates and graduates as a means to create awareness of career opportunities at UCR upon graduation.

College to Careers Workshops

- Through their long-standing relationships with campus organizations, the HR Talent Acquisition and Diversity Outreach team provides assistance with on-going career workshops scheduled throughout the year.
- HR Talent Acquisition and Diversity Outreach team can create partnership opportunities with other campus organizations to assist students in beginning their careers at UCR.

Would you like more information?

- Please visit the College to Careers website.