

Outplacement and Career Transition Services

UC Solo+ Plan 6 Months

Available at no cost to UC employees that are separating from UC employment and may need assistance with their job search

How to Access Services UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

Employees interested in using the services should contact UC Riverside, Human Resources to request information.

To assist you in your transition, UC Riverside, Human Resources is offering you this resource at no cost to you. You will be contacted with information on how to access and use the services. If you have any questions, please contact Human Resources at UC Riverside, via email at Talent@ucr.edu.

All services available in Spanish upon request.

Services provided by

- 6 months access to a virtual platform, 24x7
- Immediate access to unlimited on-demand one-on-one coach support 7 days a week via video, phone or text chat from any device, with no time caps/required scheduling
- Live coach webinars and Q&A sessions focused on job search topics
- Interactive interview practice with a coach 7 days a week
- Resume samples by industry and career level
- Resume builder and self-guided workshops
- AI-assisted cover letter builder to support targeted job applications
- Self-guided pitch statement workshop
- Curated job boards specific to area of interest
- Job alerts
- LinkedIn integration to identify connections at target companies
- Direct link to relevant recruiters by industry
- Company and people search tools
- Association and trade show database by industry
- On-demand online courses from leading providers edX, Coursera and Udemy
- AI-integrated mock interview practice with target job-specific questions
- Career transition guide with links to unemployment resources by state
- Additional assessments to identify strengths, values, and more
- Interview, salary negotiation, and offer evaluation guides
- Professional and social networking guides
- Alumni access

Outplacement and Career Transition Services

Flex Plan 6 Months

Available to UC employees that are separating from UC employment and may need assistance with their job search. UCR department approval required and sponsored ($500 fee).

How to Access Services UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

Employees interested in using the services should contact UC Riverside, Human Resources to request information.

To assist you in your transition, UC Riverside, Human Resources is offering you this resource at no cost to you. You will be contacted with information on how to access and use the services. If you have any questions, please contact Human Resources at UC Riverside, via email at Talent@ucr.edu.

Services provided by

- LinkedIn and cover letter critique
- 1:1 resume review coaching
- 6 months access to a virtual platform, 24x7 that includes:
 - Immediate access to unlimited on-demand one-on-one coach support 7 days a week via video, phone or text chat from any device, with no time caps/required scheduling
 - Live coach webinars and Q&A sessions focused on job search topics
 - Interactive interview practice with a coach 7 days a week
 - Resume samples by industry and career level
 - Resume builder and self-guided workshops
 - AI-assisted cover letter builder to support targeted job applications
 - Self-guided pitch statement workshop
 - Curated job boards specific to area of interest
 - Job alerts
 - LinkedIn integration to identify connections at target companies
 - Direct link to relevant recruiters by industry
 - Company and people search tools
 - Association and trade show database by industry
 - On-demand online courses from leading providers edX, Coursera and Udemy
 - AI-integrated mock interview practice with target job-specific questions
 - Career transition guide with links to unemployment resources by state
 - Additional assessments to identify strengths, values, and more
 - Interview, salary negotiation, and offer evaluation guides
 - Professional and social networking guides
 - Alumni access

Outplacement and Career Transition Services

Premium Plan 6 Months

Available to UC employees that are separating from UC employment and may need assistance with their job search. UCR department approval required and sponsored ($1,000 fee).

How to Access Services UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

Employees interested in using the services should contact UC Riverside, Human Resources to request information.

To assist you in your transition, UC Riverside, Human Resources is offering you this resource at no cost to you. You will be contacted with information on how to access and use the services. If you have any questions, please contact Human Resources at UC Riverside, via email at Talent@ucr.edu.

Services provided by

- Individually matched dedicated career coach based on industry and career level
- Weekly strategic coaching sessions, covering personal brand building, networking, research and more
- Comprehensive career planning, including retirement transition and entrepreneurship
- Resume writing and social media branding
- LinkedIn and cover letter critique
- Resume review
- 6 months access to a virtual platform, 24x7 that includes:
 - Immediate access to unlimited on-demand one-on-one coach support 7 days a week via video, phone or text chat from any device, with no time caps/required scheduling
 - Live coach webinars and Q&A sessions focused on job search topics
 - Interactive interview practice with a coach 7 days a week
 - Resume samples by industry and career level
 - Resume builder and self-guided workshops
 - AI-assisted cover letter builder to support targeted job applications
 - Self-guided pitch statement workshop
 - Curated job boards specific to area of interest
 - Job alerts
 - LinkedIn integration to identify connections at target companies
 - Direct link to relevant recruiters by industry
 - Company and people search tools
 - Association and trade show database by industry
 - On-demand online courses from leading providers edX, Coursera and Udemy
 - AI-integrated mock interview practice with target job-specific questions
 - Career transition guide with links to unemployment resources by state
 - Additional assessments to identify strengths, values, and more
 - Interview, salary negotiation, and offer evaluation guides
 - Professional and social networking guides
 - Alumni access